- This stunning full floor apartment, in one of the most graceful and elegant buildings in Pacific Heights, perfectly balances comfort and practicality, with style and sophistication. 1810 Jackson Street, #7, is a sumptuously appointed condominium, on an upper floor of a pre-war mid-rise, boasting the intricate architectural detail and formality of a bygone era. The unmatched art and architecture of this classic apartment make it a rare jewel in one of San Francisco's most prestigious locations.
- Enchanting Bay and City views. Flooded with light. Three large bedrooms, three full bathrooms, and one-half bathroom, one car deeded parking, with a total of 8+ rooms (3,364 sq.ft, per graphic artist); which include a stately formal living room with fireplace, and a small balcony, formal dining room, solarium, beautifully appointed kitchen, formal foyer, office, and family room.
